Retreat House

Rosemary Daniell is known as one of the best writing coaches in the country. The author of SECRETS OF THE ZONA ROSA: How Writing (and Sisterhood) Change Women's Lives, and its prequel, THE WOMAN WHO SPILLED WORDS ALL OVER HERSELF: Writing and Living the Zona Rosa Way. She is the founder and leader of Zona Rosa[®], a series of creative writing workshops in Savannah, Atlanta, and cities throughout the country, as well as in Europe, as profiled in People and Southern Living magazines.

But first and foremost, she is the award-winning author of six other books of poetry and prose. Her revolutionary memoir FATAL FLOWERS: On Sin, Sex, and Suicide in the Deep South, won the 1999 Palimpsest Prize for a most requested out-of-print book. Along with her second memoir SLEEPING WITH SOLDIERS, it was a forerunner of the current memoir trend. Along with her four other books of poetry and prose, they were widely and nationally reviewed in many publications, among them Time, the New York Times, the Washington Post, the Philadelphia Inquirer, Ms., and Rolling Stone.

About The Workshop

The weeklong workshop is intended for serious writers of fiction, creative nonfiction, and poetry, as well as beginners who wish to become more serious about their writing, or simply use writing as a tool for healing or enrichment.

The workshop will begin on Saturday afternoon, June 16, with an optional informal get-together at 5:00. From Monday through Friday, Rosemary will meet with writers during the mornings, then lead group sessions in the afternoons from two until five p.m.

The workshop will end on Friday with a final session followed by the annual Zona Rosa party at Rosemary's house in Savannah on Friday evening.

Check out from our lodgings at Tybee will be at 11 AM on Saturday morning, June 23.
