SECRETS OF THE ZONA ROSA

How Writing (and Sisterhood)
Can Change Women's Lives

Please take the time to peruse the attached Letter via the link below – (my first blog ever! And since it’s so long, I’ve divided it into readable, bite-size sections) – in which I describe not only my recent travels on behalf of Zona Rosa and SECRETS OF THE ZONA ROSA, but I also introduce you to more Zona Rosans, describing our good times and new Sub Rosa groups around the country, and the creation and hilarious preview of ZONA ROSA, THE MUSICAL in Atlanta. The link for the blog is www.myzonarosa.com/blog And don’t forget to catch up with the many new Stars in the Zona Rosa, plus upcoming events and Book Lust (our new book club) by going to our web page at www.myzonarosa.com.

I will also greatly appreciate your adding your review of the book to Amazon – you don’t have to buy anything, but you do have to have an account. We now have 32 reviews and rising -- our goal is 1000! (And bisous if you also add it to Barnes & Noble!)

Please write, too, to Oprah, Dr. Phil, The View, and others of your favorite television venues, plus such woman-related sites as iVillage, Women's Entertainment (WE), Oxygen, and Gloria Steinem's new radio station at Greenstone Media (this may not yet be airing in your area, but watch for it) by going to their web sites and sending your e-mail from there. Writing to sites related to women and creativity will be helpful, too.

And when you've done these things, please drop me a note so I can send you good vibrations in return!

In the meantime, my deepest thanks to all of you who have read the book and responded so warmly!

Thank you so much for everything you have done for Zona Rosa, and SECRETS OF THE ZONA ROSA! We couldn't have done it without you!

With warmest wishes, and bless your writing hands,

Rosemary/Zona Rosa
